Negrophobia is a debilitating mental disorder characterized by the creation and vilification of "the other". This is a patchwork of science fiction, poetry, history, staged dramatics and many of the Reviews: 7.

Basically, this book an ultra-pretentious, masturbatory, ego-driven, literary freakout of extreme proportions. The author writes a bunch of unintelligible psycho-babble having to with Black people and race, which condescends to the reader. The eschewal of traditional narrative makes the book so filmic that tired readers may deem it unsuited for the page, wishing instead for what would be a spectacular--if technically onerous-. Negrophobia: an urban parable kirkus reviews, every racial stereotype about black people comes to boisterous, blistering life in this outrageous first .
